

How to find your Hockey Canada ID

If you're unsure what your athlete's Hockey Canada Identification Number (HCIN) is, you can search for it on Hockey Canada's NEW HCR website found here: https://account.spordle.com/login

Hockey Canada recently upgraded the Hockey Canada Registry so there's a completely new interface to it. IF you haven't already created your account in the NEW HCR Spordle, you'll need to do it now. If you have created it already, scroll down to the section about linking your athlete's IDs (and yours if you have one) to your account. Click on "Login" in the top right corner of the page, then click "Sign up".

Fill out this entire form with your name, a password that includes letters, numbers, and symbols, and click Sign up.

You will then see this verification page to ensure you have a legitimate email address.

Open your email (the same one you entered in the form on the previous page) and copy the 6 digit code so you can paste it into the first box on the verification page (it will put the numbers in all the correct boxes).

Read the Terms & Conditions and if you agree to them, click on "I agree".
